

BOYS BASKETBALL CAMP

Serious about basketball?

This full day camp will take you to the next level of play. Each workout is packed with fundamental drills for improving skills, competitive games, and offensive/defensive situation breakdowns of game strategies. With hard work, dedication, and proper training, players will continue to build their competitive edge. We believe each player will find this experience to be educational, challenging, and fun.

ABOUT COACH BRYANT

Dwayne Bryant was four year starter for Georgetown University and Hall of Fame Coach John Thompson II. He is ranked number 47 out of 100 great all-time in Georgetown Basketball history and he is currently ranked in the top ten all time in assists (#3) Steals (#9) and three point field goal percentage (#1). Coach Bryant went to the San Antonio Spurs as a rookie free agent Point Guard in 1990. After the Spurs tryout, Coach Bryant decided to play professionally in South America, Europe, and Canada for a total of three seasons before deciding to become a teacher and a coach. He coached high school basketball for over 20 years and coached more than 40 players who went on to play college basketball, including NBA All-Star center Roy Hibbert. Coach Bryant moved to Austin in July of 2016 to become the Director of Athletics at Trinity. He is also the Head Coach of the Trinity 7/8 6A Boys Basketball Team. He has more than 25 years of experience in individual player development and running basketball camps.
